ORDER :

In the letter read above, the Special Chief Secretary and Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada has stated that the Hon'ble Administrative Tribunal has already imposed stay on Committee of IAS officers constituted to prepare seniority and Hon'ble High Court has not inclined to disturb the stay imposed by the Hon'ble APAT and significantly mentioned as such and inturn instructed both the State Government to take up independent action of preparing seniority of Deputy Collectors and in view of the direction imposed by the Hon'ble High Court, it would be appropriate to prepare the seniority list independently so as not to invite any further legal impediments. The Special Chief Secretary and Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada has therefore proposed the following advisory panel comprising of following officers:-

1.Secretary to CCLA, A.P., Government	….	Chairman
2.Secretary to CCLA, T.S., Government	….	Member
3.Additional Secretary / Joint Secretary Law Department, A.P., Government	….	Member
4 Additional Secretary / Joint Secretary General Administration (Services) Department, A.P., Government	….	Member
5.Assistant Secretary O/o CCLA., Andhra Pradesh Government	….	Convener
6.Other officer authorized from either States	….	Member

2. The Special Chief Secretary and Chief Commissioner of Land Administration, Andhra Pradesh, Vijayawada has proposed the following duties and requested to accord necessary permission for taking further action in the matter:-

(i) It is just an advisory panel comprising of departmental officers from both the States, as the Hon'ble High Court instructed both the States to take up the preparation of seniority independently. To negate the unwanted legal complications and counter the hurdles, the assistance of law department officials may be sought as they are well acquainted with the court procedure and well versed with the mindset and manifestation of the Hon'ble judiciary.

(ii) The advisory panel is not an adjudicating authority in finalizing the seniority and shall assist the CCLA & Spl.CS of both the States by following the rules and established norms.

(iii) No separate honorarium shall be paid to the advisory panel as the constituted officers are regular departmental employees and shall take no initiation in finalizing the seniority.

[P.T.O]

(iv) Advisory panel shall suggest its findings to the CCLA & Spl.CS for examination within a period of three (3) weeks, from the date of approval from Government or earlier conclusion of findings, whichever shall be earlier. The panel may take into consideration the exercise made by earlier authorities and if needed may call for personal hearing of those who are liable to be affected eventually.

3. Government, after careful examination of the matter, hereby constitute the following advisory panel comprising of following officers with the following duties:-

1.Secretary to CCLA, A.P., Government	….	Chairman
2.Secretary to CCLA, T.S., Government	….	Member
3.Additional Secretary / Joint Secretary Law Department, A.P., Government	….	Member
4 Additional Secretary / Joint Secretary General Administration (Services) Department, A.P., Government	….	Member
6.Other officer authorized from either States	….	Member
